

Dear Christopher,

It seems rather odd that I don't even know your last name, yet at the same time you seem to know more about me than most of the people in my life.

I wanted to take the time to thank you for the enlightening and insightful discussion we had last week.

As mentioned to you, I overheard you and your wife on the tail end of a radio program in Ottawa. Curiosity got the better of me and I decided to call you. Sorry about the five am thing I obviously missed the part about you being from the West Coast. This was my first "reading" experience, I have to say that you blew me away. You were consistently bang on with your description of my personality traits and those of the people in my life.

Your insight into the things which are currently troubling my mind was at first a little unnerving, but at the end of the session seemed to bring a sense of clarity and purpose to the path I am on.

I have been telling everyone about your amazing gift and I cannot wait until I schedule another session with you.

Thank you for the wonderful experience.

Sincerely,

Alanna
