Dear Christophir and Crystell,

A quick note to thank you Christophir for another excellent reading yesterday.

It's hard to believe that for over 16 years I've been calling upon you as a valued advisor when I've been faced with what I affectionately refer to as curve balls in life. Sometimes, it's not even a curve ball but a bending in the road when I know a reading with you, will give me the guidance that I need.

In more than one reading, you have mentioned health Issues that I needed to focus on which after a visit to the doctor's office, were validated, and then of course taken care of.

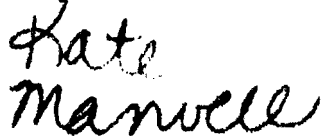

Over the years you've given me direction in my personal and business life, each time leading me in a direction that was meant to be, or in a direction that then took me to where I should be.

Countless of times, opportunities weren't even on my radar screen, but you brought them forward (an my agenda, so to speak) which made all of the difference in the choices that I made. For this, I am eternally grateful.

Your kind manner and compassion for your fellow beings is a true blessing. Thank you again, for the wonderful work that you are doing Christophir and Crystell.

God Bless.

Yours truly
