To Whom It May Concern:

I first contacted Christopher Regan after hearing him speak on a local (Portland) radio show in 1990. I have been calling him and asking for psychic readings about once every two months ever since.

Christopher is kind, thoughtful, responsible, and very, very psychic. He has been able to guide me through family squabbles, employment issues, health problems, and relationship questions. Without my giving him any more information than first-names. Christopher has been particularly adept at analyzing and clarifying the individual perspectives of those around me, and assisting me in dealing with their actions. I have found his information to be remarkably accurate.

I have consulted several gifted psychic readers in the course of my fifty plus years, and Christopher Regan ranks among the finest. Making use of psychic information is of course ultimately the responsibility of the seeker, and Christopher has been careful to indicate, encourage, and advise-but never dictate. His information has always been given in a manner that has been empowering to me.

Together with his wife Crystal, Christopher Regan has conducted a telephone psychic reading service for many years. His work is professional and ethical. I heartily recommend his readings. I know from experience that they are extremely helpful!!

Sincerely,

J.S.
