To Whom it May Concern-,

I, had the pleasure of receiving my first of several readings in the mid 90's from Kristofer, on recommendation from a friend. In those days my focus was on finding true love and my future husband.. I was currently in a relationship that I suspected would eventually end, and my reading with Kristofer helped me gain clarity on what was fundamentally absent ten, by articulating what I couldn't quite piece together on my own at the time. He outlined who my future husband would be and what type of characteristics he would have, giving me hope to follow my instincts and patiently await the day that I would be ready to attract him into my life. He told me his age, astrological sign, and personality and emotional traits he would have, so many that I had a clear picture of him in my heart for years prior to actually meeting him. He also mentioned I would meet him at an unlikely place (one that I would not have anticipated) and that I wouldn't immediately recognize him as "the one".

Kris also explained my future husbands past pains and history along with many of the events that would unfold around us when we first met. This included some "fore-warned is fore-armed" insight that helped prepare me for what was coming, and allowed me to patiently work through things and kept me emotionally balanced when the time came that we actually met.

Today I am happily married to the man that Kris helped me recognize. Often, I am reminded of Kris's description of my husband when he exhibits the many characteristics (emotional depth, sensitivity towards people and animals, inner strength and "character") that Kris explained to me he would have. He also exactly the age and astrological sign that Kris described with all the circumstances leading to our meeting and subsequent events accurately portrayed to me.

After our wedding, Kris and Krystal offered Eric (my husband) and I an opportunity to participate in an all expense paid trip to Los Angeles California to appear on the daytime talk show "Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus". We had an opportunity to share our experience with television viewers and take part in a "once in a lifetime" event.

We are very grateful for all that Kris and Krystal have brought into our lives. They truly have unique gifts that they have devoted their lives to sharing with others. They are kind hearted professional healers, who have taught me a great deal about understanding others and myself.

I would be happy to answer any further questions about our experiences with them and can be reached directly at 604-990-1069.

Sincerely,
Lisa and Eric Lock .

Crystell and Christophir do all consultations by phone. When the NBC TV show wanted to feature the married psychics, it was the first time that they "physically" met Lisa and Eric. They met just before the show at the LA Studios.
